

ANZAC Spirit Bingo

ANZAC Spirit Bingo is a fun family game designed to get everyone talking all things ANZAC. Grandparents also love playing Bingo so why not involve them using Skype or Facetime so the whole family can play.

What you'll need?

- Bingo Call Card list
- Bingo Player Cards print out the templates or create your own based off our Call Card list of words
- Items to mark the squares off with such as Counters or Felt Pens
- A hat or container to put the words in
- A prize for the winner

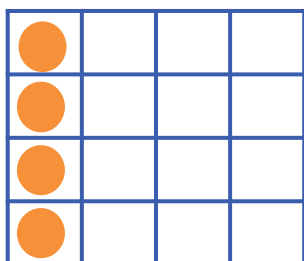

How to play

1. Print and Cut up the word list. If you do not have a printer, write the words down on small individual pieces of paper.
2. Fold or scrunch up the individual words and place in the hat or container.
3. Nominate a someone to be the Caller. The Caller is the person that reads out the words that determine which squares get covered on everyone's Bingo Cards.
4. Each player gets a Bingo Card with your chosen item to mark the card off with.
5. The caller gets the hat or container with the words in.
6. The Caller draws a word out of the hat or container and then calls out the word to the players.
7. Each player then marks off the word on their card.
8. Continue calling and marking off the cards until someone says 'Bingo' with the winning combination.

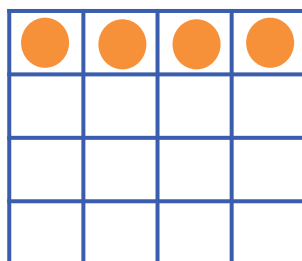

For an extra challenge, play two different Bingo Cards at the same time and try to keep up or get the caller to call the words out at a fast pace.
